

THE NORTHEASTERN
MOUNTAIN CHAPTER
OF THE AMERICAN HARP
SOCIETY, INC. IN PARTNERSHIP WITH OLD
SONGS, INC. PRESENTS

An Afternoon with William Jackson

A Celtic harp player of international renown, William Jackson has been a moving force and a major influence, not only on the popularization of the Celtic harp, but on Scottish traditional music. A founding member of the group Ossian (1976-1989), he has also had a distinguished solo career as a performer and a composer. Currently, he performs, teaches and is a certified Music Therapist. We are fortunate to offer an opportunity to learn from and enjoy the artistry of William Jackson as he presents a workshop followed by a concert in Latham.

When: Sunday, March 31, 2019

Where: Calvary United Methodist Church
15 Ridge Place
Latham, NY 12110

Workshop: "Accompanying Other Instruments"
2:00 -- 3:30 P.M.

Concert: 4:30 P.M.

Cost:

Workshop only -- $40.00

Concert only -- $20.00

Bundled cost for both events -- $50.00

Join us! Explore the possibilities of the Celtic harp as it applies to ensemble and session playing with other-folk oriented instruments, then sit back and appreciate William Jackson's mastery on the instrument and the depth of his connection to the traditional music of Scotland.
